

AMBER JAUNAI

WHO IS SHE

Meet Amber Jaunai—a New York native now living it up in Los Angeles.

In New York, she starred in "She Persisted" at the Atlantic Theater Company, which was lauded a New York Times critic's pick and an Off-Broadway Alliance award. She has also left her mark at New York Theater Workshop, Page 73, The Tank, among other theater companies.

On the small screen, she has made appearances in hit shows such as New Amsterdam, Bull, and Law and Order: SVU. In addition to her on camera work, Amber's a dynamic voiceover artist who collaborates with a range of companies; Nickelodeon, ESPN, HBO, and Focus Features to name a few.

With a BFA in acting from Pace University as her foundation, Amber remains a dedicated student; constantly deepening her craft in master scene studies focused in Stella Adler to improv classes at The Groundlings.

Amber balances her artistry with a grounding yoga practice, a love for adventure and the outdoors, and a mission to perfect her right hook. Because, let's face it, every superhero needs a killer punch.
